

Arts in Motion Theater Company presents Children's Musical Theater Workshops

Mary Bastoni-Rebmann presents her popular Children's Musical Theater Workshop during school and summer vacation weeks in the Mt. Washington Valley for children ages 6 – 14.

The week long workshops include daily vocal warm ups, character development, learning and applying theater skills for the stage, and more! Minimum enrollment is required.

The workshop culminates in a fully staged and costumed performance complete with make-up, set and music. Performed in front of a live audience, this show includes all children and is open to the public and free of charge. Parents, family, friends, etc are encouraged to enjoy the show.

Arts in Motion Theater Company offers a positive and fun environment for children to explore their creativity and build their self-esteem!

Mary Bastoni-Rebmann has been teaching Musical Theater Workshops for AIM for 2 years and in Denmark, Maine since 1995. She has also taught similar programs at the Schoolhouse Arts Center in Standish, Maine as well as in Gorham, ME. Her productions have been well received by children and parents and she has had many children return year after year.

Read what some of our parents have to say!

"My daughter played Geppetto in the last workshop- who knew playing an old Italian man could turn into a new love for the theatre! Robin was just in Peter Pan as "Jane" and is looking forward to auditions for many upcoming shows. Mary loves what she does and it shows in the kid's enthusiasm! Thanks, Mary!"
Megan Croce, Conway, NH

"My daughter has been involved in five (and counting!) of AIM's Children's Musical Theater Workshops. From learning to be comfortable singing and speaking on stage to making beautiful new friendships, she has benefited in innumerable ways from Mary's talent, expertise and enthusiasm. We are so grateful to AIM for providing this wonderful educational opportunity for the children of the Valley. I can't wait until my son is old enough to join in the fun!"
Joanna Hughes, Conway, NH

"This will be the third year that our son Pete has participated in Mary's theater workshops. He loves working with Mary and he has learned so much. She is a great leader of kids, always positive and supportive, but never talking down to them. While the workshops are fun, at the same time she keeps strict focus on teaching the kids proper theater etiquette and discipline, and what it means to be serious about performing. The success of this approach is always evident in the final result - a performance at the highest levels of professionalism that her young cast can reach. Mary expects the best from her students and in response, they rise to the occasion! She's a treasure."
